

Dr. Patterson's Opinion of Dr. Shade's Treatment.

Dr. J. B. Patterson, 243 Del. ave. ne., says: "In my opinion, Dr. N. B. Shade, of this city, stands at the head of the medical profession as a specialist. I was cured of pulmonary tuberculosis by his chloridum discovery for consumption seven years ago. My lungs are still free from disease. Sept. 14, 1901."

Mr. Gundling, who was fifty years old, was crossing Pennsylvania avenue at the time the accident occurred. He is said to have stepped directly in front of the cab, and it was impossible for the driver to stop in time to avoid the collision. Mr. Gundling was taken to the hospital, where he died this morning, as stated. During the time of the trial, the following facts and arrangements were made this afternoon for the removal of his body to an undertaking establishment to be prepared for burial. A brother of the deceased, David Gundling, conducts a grocery store at 14th and Samson. While McCormick, who had charge of the cab at the time the fatal accident occurred, lives at 437 H street southwest. The police of the first precinct investigated the affair

Sunday and reported that it was an unavoidable accident.

WILLIAM MCKINLEY'S RECORD.

His Service to His Country as Soldier

Kilt Carson Post, No. 2. G. A. R., of this city through its adjutant, Charles F. Keefe, has prepared and published in circular form a memorial to the President of the United States, in which he has extensively much of interest in his public record as soldier and civilian. The items included were obtained from official records and are as follows:

Comrade William McKinley:

Born at Niles, Randolph county; January 22, 1861. Education at State, Company D, 23d Ohio Volunteer Infantry, at Poland, Ohio, and mustered in at Columbus, Ohio, June 11, 1861.

Held major, U. S. Volunteers, March 13, 1865, "for gallant and meritorious services during the campaign in West Virginia and the capture of Fort Fisher." Mustered with regiment, July 26, 1865.

Engaged in actions of Carnifex Ferry, Va., September 10, 1861; Clark's Hollow, Va., May 1, 1862; Cheat Mountain, May 15, 1862; Cheat Mountain, Md., September 14, 1862; Antietam, Md., September 17, 1862; Buffington, Ohio river, July 19, 1863; Clay's treasury in the Colombian cabinet. The belief prevails at the local legation that the change in the ministry was precipitated by differences among the cabinet on account of the proposed gold loan which the government has been seeking to obtain from the banks. Some of the ministers were favorable to compulsory action in forcing a loan, while others were opposed to such action. Colombia has issued a large amount of paper money, and the expenses of carrying on the operations against the revolutionists, so that the value of the paper dollar is now about four cents. The government is endeavoring to obtain money to purchase ships and for other purposes, but the government's course meets with considerable opposition. While un-

More Money for Rural Free Delivery.
The official estimates for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1902, which Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith will submit to Congress at the opening of the session call for an aggregate of $6,250,000 for rural free delivery service throughout the country is an increase of $2,750,000 over the expenses of that rapidly growing service for the current year. The total for free delivery service for the fiscal year is that of the cities, is $18,745,000, increase of 9 per cent.

The grand aggregate for the entire postal service, including the cost of the rural free delivery and rural free delivery, is $24,905,000.

Sir Joseph C. Dimdale has been elected lord mayor of London to succeed Mr. Frank fire having been started in a room on the third floor. What caused the fire is not known, but it is supposed to have been caused by a candle. The estimated damage to the amount of about $100 was done to the building and furniture.

Indians Rescue a Prisoner.

A dispatch from Agent Somers of the Lower Brebe Indian reservation in South Dakota announces that Indians there overpowered the police Saturday and took an Indian prisoner from the guardhouse. The prisoner was a man named John Smith, who was arrested by the police. The inspector sent to the scene is now investigating.
